

Greenville's own The Band Perry, along with their parents, Dr. Steve and Marie Perry, were inducted into the Junior Achievement Tri-Cities Tennessee/Virginia's Business Hall of Fame in May of 2014. The band proudly calls Greene County home and frequently returns here for rest and relaxation.

Bachman Bernard has been voted The Greenville Sun's "People's Choice" winner year after year after year by the readers and voters of the local communities. The Best Car, Best Truck, Best Used Cars, Best Used Trucks, Best Oil Changes, Best Transmission Service, Best Auto Body Shop, Best Mechanic and many more awards have been bestowed upon this dealership time and time again.

Bachman Bernard's two locations are only minutes from everywhere, but miles from the pressure. Stop in and see why year after year people say "Bachman Bernard always goes the extra mile to see their customers smile." Visit them Monday through Saturday from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. for sales, or for service Monday through Friday 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and Saturday from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

To find out more about Bachman Bernard's inventory, selection or service, visit them from the comfort of home or work 24/7 at www.bb11e.com or www.bachmanbernardchevy.com and see why they are the dealership that sells, services and stands behind their customer's automotive needs both today and tomorrow and for many years to come.

CHASAN, LLC, Industrial Complex is located in beautiful Greenville, Tenn. home of the 17th U.S. president, Andrew Johnson, and the birthplace of frontiersman Davy Crockett.

The facility is located within 30 miles of Interstates I-81, I-40, and I-26 and 75 miles of I-75; and is within 600 miles of 75% of the U.S. population. As a result, CHASAN's location is ideal for distribution or manufacturing. It is also within minutes of Pigeon Forge (and Dollywood), Gatlinburg, the Smoky Mountain National Park, seven TVA lakes and reservoirs and the North Carolina and West Virginia ski resorts. Greenville is the perfect place to locate for employee recreation.

CHASAN has over 1,100,000 square feet of "food grade" space under one roof, as well as an additional 150,000 square-foot warehousing/distribution facility in Greenville. Currently the company has several tenants occupying space in the facilities. The company has additional space available and is poised to build additional square footage on the facility's 60-plus acres as the need arises. CHASAN can provide clients space to fit their specifications.

Their services include warehousing and manufacturing space leasing, as well as full-service warehousing; logistics; flat bed and box trucking services; a rail spur siding; cross docking; trailer and container drop lots; repackaging; freight consolidation; LIFO/FIFO inventory controls; pallet wrapping; and product assembly.
